We are delighted to present the first edition of the Sweden-Pakistan Business Guide. The Guide is intended to present the existing commercial links between Sweden and Pakistan, as well as the Swedish economy at large. We are convinced that it will serve as a valuable tool for those who wish to learn more about trade and commercial links between our two countries.

Swedish companies have a longstanding tradition in Pakistan and are well known for the quality of their products as well as their contribution to the development of Pakistan. Our hope is that this Guide will be useful for them, and also inspire other businesses who have yet to establish themselves in Pakistan. We are convinced that the huge and growing market in Pakistan should be of great interest to many Swedish companies.

We stand ready to facilitate growing contacts between partners in Sweden and Pakistan. We hope that this Guide will continue to contribute to even stronger links between Pakistan and Sweden.

THE SWEDISH SOCIETY AND ECONOMY

PRIORITY AREAS

Sweden is a country with a strong reputation for its natural resources, innovations, high tech companies and developed welfare state. In order to promote Sweden, enhance trade, attract investment, tourists and talent, and encourage cultural exchange, four focus areas have been identified by the Council of Sweden Promotion.

INNOVATION

Today, Sweden ranks as one of the most innovative countries in the world. An educated workforce and a tradition of innovation enables Swedish companies to be market leaders in competitive sectors such as life science, environmental technologies, IT telecom, innovation for society, car and truck manufacturing, mining and pulp and paper production. Many of these companies have been world leaders since the early 20th century, continuously reinventing themselves to stay on top.

SUSTAINABILITY

Sweden has a long history of international commitment to sustainable development. This profile area focuses on ecological sustainability, protection of the environment and combating climate change. Sweden is at the forefront of developments in new environmental technologies and sustainable system solutions, including renewable energy, green buildings, waste management, air and water treatment, sustainable fuels and battery-driven vehicles.

CREATIVITY

Sweden is a strong player in the cultural and creative industries. These industries play an increasingly important role in the growth of the Swedish economy and are driving forces for innovation in other sectors of society and industry as well. Fashion and design, film, literature and music, performing arts, computer games, gastronomy and marketing communication are thriving examples of the creative industries.

SOCIETY

Sweden enjoys an open and tolerant society with advanced welfare and social security, gender equality, internet freedom and personal security.

SWEDEN PAKISTAN BUSINESS HISTORY

Trade between Sweden and Pakistan dates back to the founding of Pakistan in 1947. Swedish multinationals, such as Ericsson, Alfa Laval and Volvo, have been present in the Pakistan market for decades, and contributed to forming strong ties between the two countries. Today, as economic reforms and liberalisation of trade have started to bear fruit, the potential for increased cooperation is huge. The agreement of GSP Plus-status for Pakistan in 2013 will make exports in Pakistan to the European Union, including Sweden, cheaper, and should further strengthen the links.

Major Swedish exports to Pakistan include paper and pulp, telecommunication equipment, machinery, trucks, chemicals and metals. Pakistan exports to Sweden consist mainly of textile, garments, leather and sports goods. Swedish retail companies such as Ikea and H&M are major buyers of textile products from Pakistan. Several Swedish companies have also made direct investments in Pakistan, including Tetra Pak and Stora Enso. In total, more than twenty Swedish companies are represented in the Pakistan market.
